KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its dividends or coupons (if any) may rise or fall. The following risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment and your principal may be at risk.	Refer to the “Risk Factors” section in Paragraph 8 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on the risk of the product.
Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Market risk – the value of assets in the Portfolio is typically dictated by a number of factors, including political, market and general economic conditions. Deterioration or uncertainty regarding any of these conditions may result in declines in the market values of actual or potential investments, and/or increased illiquidity of investments. • Exchange rate risk – changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives. • Counterparty risk – a party that the Portfolio transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses.
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Portfolio may not always find another party willing to purchase an asset that the Portfolio wants to sell which could impact the Portfolio’s ability to meet redemption requests on demand.
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Equity risk – the Portfolio mostly invests in shares and similar instruments which typically experience higher levels of price fluctuations than fixed income securities. • Operational risk – material losses to the Portfolio may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls. • Custodian risk – insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or sub-custodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Portfolio’s assets can result in loss to the Portfolio. • Derivatives risk – derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested. • Emerging markets risk – emerging markets are likely to bear higher risk due to lower liquidity and possible lack of adequate financial, legal, social, political and economic structures, protection and stability as well as uncertain tax positions. • Model risk – the Investment Adviser employs sophisticated models, developed by Goldman Sachs, which select investments for the Portfolio. Investments selected using these models may perform differently than expected as a result of the design of the model, inputs into the model or other factors. • Sustainability risk – an environmental, social or governance event or condition that could cause the value of the portfolio to go down. Examples of sustainability risks include physical environmental risks, climate change transition risks, supply chain disruptions, improper labour practices, lack of board diversity and corruption.
